

The Chancellor Robert R Livingston

Masonic Library Of Grand Lodge

Collecting, Studying & Preserving the Masonic Heritage

Library Dinner Lecture Series

"The State Of Masonic Education", a lecture and discussion presented by a panel of Masonic researchers and scholars from Quatuor Coronati Lodge in London. The Quatuor Coronati Lodge, warranted by the United Grand Lodge of England, is the premier lodge of Masonic research, having been founded in 1884. Membership is by invitation and is limited to forty. Speakers are:

- S. Brent Morris (Worshipful Master, and the first native-born American to hold that office)
- Peter Currie (Senior Warden and Editor of AQC)
- Yasha Beresiner (Past Master, lecturer and published author)
- Trevor Stewart (Past Master and Prestonian Lecturer)
- John Wade (Sheffield University's Centre for Research into Freemasonry)

Monday, December 10 (business attire)

La Petite Auberge Restaurant

116 Lexington Avenue, at 28th Street

6 pm - Reception (cash bar)

7 pm - Lecture and five-course dinner (includes wine, beer, soda, coffee)

Lecture is open to all Masons, including EA's and FC's

Subscriptions are $75*

Submit a list of attendees and Lodge, together with your check PRIOR TO December 3

NO TICKETS AT THE DOOR

Checks payable to Livingston Masonic Library

Livingston Library

71 West 23rd Street

New York, NY 10010-4171

Sponsors are also being solicited.

Contact the Library at 212-337-6620

*A portion may be tax-deductible. Consult your tax professional.

Enclosed is my subscription of $ _____ for _____ seats ($75/person). Those attending are Brothers:

(name/lodge) _____

(name/lodge) _____

(name/lodge) _____

(name/lodge) _____

(name/lodge) _____